Purpose and Objectives of Club
There are many studies that prove the favorable impact of doing sport, in general, and martial arts, in particular on one's physical shape, stress resistance, emotional well-being, etc.. In addition to these, practicing hapkido in Korea, motherland of this self-defense system, gives a perfect chance to better adapt to the new country environment and to get to know Korean culture better and get more friends. Obviously, there are many more advantages of doing hapkido and each will find one's own set. As such, the main objectives are to keep one's body in a good shape, build a stress resistance and overall have a wonderful adventure while staying in Korea.
