

The Martin School of Public Policy and Administration

KDI Presentation
February 25, 2022

Benefits of Attending the Martin School

- Nationally recognized for MPA (#26) and Public Finance/Budgeting (#4)
- Experienced faculty
- Small cohorts and classes
- Rigorous curriculum
- Professional development and networking opportunities

Lexington, KY

- Vibrant City of about 325,000
- Ranked #8 Best City to Live in the US by Money Magazine
- Ranked as the 6th most affordable city in the U.S. by Kiplinger
- Great public schools and good health care providers
- Rated 3rd Safest City in the U.S. by Safewise
- Lexington is within 600 miles of 2/3 of the U.S. population
- Kentucky has one of the lowest COVID rates in the country

UK Campus

- University of Kentucky ranked as the 61st best public U.S. university
- Enrollment of about 30,000 students
- University of Kentucky recently spent over a Billion dollars upgrading facilities
- University of Kentucky has major sports teams, #1 men's basketball team
- Easy walk to downtown
- Free access to mass transit

Executive MPP Courses

Spring 2022

- Public Program Evaluation
 - Government Information Systems
 - Public Policy Analysis
 - Public Policy Economics
-
- 12 credit hours

Executive MPP Courses

Fall 2022

- Public Financial Management
- Policy Process
- Public/Nonprofit Organization Theory
- 9 credit hours

Executive Education Program

- The Institute offers specifically tailored executive education programs.
- Participants can choose a 10-15 day program and scope of the program, as well as academic content.
- In addition to lectures by University of Kentucky faculty and professionals, executives will experience local and regional attractions within the United States.

Questions?

Feel free to email us with questions!

martinschool@uky.edu

doo-oak.kim@uky.edu

